DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the limitations of claims 4 and 10 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 3637

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 5-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The expression "the area of the bottom of the cover has no antecedent basis in the claims. Claim(s) 5, 10, 11 fail(s) to recite sufficient structural elements and interconnection of the elements to positively position and define :1) the card holder or bidding box (claim 5); 2) how the cover having two sides and a bottom is constructed so that "the area" of the bottom of the cover having no side is inserted into a table; 3) how the holder is inserted into the table so that an integral structure able to function as claimed is recited. The expression a card holder or a bidding box is unclear since such structures are not equivalents.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 5, 8, 9, so far as defined, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pasmanick. The patent to Pasmanick teaches structure as claimed including a stand alone holder comprising a top, front, two sides, rectangular cutout (22a), circular cutout (29), a top for the box (26), recess for a pencil (22b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Latham et al. The patent to Latham et al teaches structure substantially as claimed including a table having a cutout (Figs. 1-3), holder (12), structure for attachment the only difference being the shape of the holder and the particular structure for attachment. However, the use of particular shapes is a matter of desirability and choice since such would provide no unobvious result and would have been and well within the level of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide particular shapes, thereby providing structure as claimed. The use of nails, bolts, adhesives, Velcro, double side tape are well known structures which are commercially available, such as in Home Depot, Lowes. To use such conventional structures that are commercially available in the same intended purpose would have been obvious and well within the level of ordinary skill in the art.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 10, 11 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patents to Watson, Moss, Kussman, Hogue, O'Brien, Pyle, Martin, Silverman, Taylor, Bloomquist et al, teach structure similar to applicant's.
